

Parental Notification

Principia reserves the right to contact parents as it deems appropriate in disciplinary situations and in health-related challenges. When a case is forwarded to community board, the charged student(s) will be encouraged to inform their parents of the possible impending disciplinary consequences.