

Center for Civic and Global Engagement (CGE)

CGE 101 Community & Global Engagement3.0 SH []

Introduces the basic concepts and skills needed for active citizenship and engagement at the local and global levels through the lenses of multiple disciplines. The course will give students a foundation to be changemakers in their communities, societies, and the world.

CGE 400 Senior Seminar1.0 SH []

The senior seminar serves as a culminating experience for majors in the Center for Civic and Global Engagement. Students will explore an integration of knowledge from previous Center coursework by making connections between the different areas of studies in the Center through collaboration, research, writing, and reflection.

Field of Study Restrictions: Economics, Educational Studies, Global Studies, Philosophy, Political Science Majors only.